

Welcome to Healthcare Professionals

ACCU-CHEK® engage™

Guided.
Supported.
Motivated.

Diabetes support,
whenever your patients need it.

Welcome to the engage program, a personalized online program designed to empower patients and support you.

This program, based on behavioural science, helps patients actively manage their diabetes between doctor visits while strengthening their intrinsic motivation.

The engage program helps you by making it easy to see the work your patients have done, the perceived impact and their level of motivation.

Contact your Roche Diabetes Care representative to enroll in the program.

Learn about the science behind the program

WATCH VIDEO ▶

In this video, Dr. Michael Vallis*, a health psychologist with a decade of experience supporting patients to optimize diabetes self-management, introduces the science and rationale behind the program. Find out why this innovative program was developed, the impact it can have on your patients, and the support it will bring you.
