Welcome to Healthcare Professionals

Discover the engage program

The Accu-Chek engage program is an easy to use online program designed to empower people living with diabetes in the daily self-management of their condition.

Based on your recommended treatment plan, the program aims at providing support between appointments, when patients need it.

- > Developed in consultation with Dr. Michael Vallis, a health psychologist and a contributor to the Diabetes Canada Clinical Practice Guidelines.
- > Aligned with Diabetes Canada's Clinical Practice Guidelines on goal setting.
- > Based on behavioural science and motivational interviewing principles.

Webinar on diabetes and self-management:

In this webinar, Dr. Michael Vallis* discusses the role of technology in enabling people living with diabetes to better self-manage their condition.

Demo video of the Accu-Chek engage program:

In this short demo video, you will get an in-depth look at the program and see exactly how it works for a patient, as well as for you and your clinic.
